UP Next.....Ning Hou

I have been an artist for 41 years. In that time, I have learned that the word respect sums up all that is good in people and in this wonderful universe we share. Respect for nature, life, other people, their ideas, struggles, cultures, and beliefs. It has been said that the most beautiful and important things in life cannot be seen, made, nor heard, but are thought in the mind, felt in the soul and breathed in the spirit. I hope that my paintings touch people and activate these feelings and evoke thoughts of respect for the wonder and sacredness of life, nature, and spirit.

Next B.A.S Meeting
Wednesday, February 5, 2014
7:00 - 9:00 p.m

Lions Hall. 900 Burlingame Ave., Burlingame Members, guests and the general public are invited.
Light refreshments will be served.

A message from the President...

We all really enjoyed Gary Bukovnik's talk and demo... what an inspiration! The February 5th meeting will be lots of fun and a chance to sign up for a painting workshop on February 22 and 23... all mediums welcome! More details at the meeting or contact Susan Pizzi. We are looking to fill a few vacancies in our committees: PLEASE if you are computer literate we NEED you to help put out the Palette. We also need volunteers to serve on the scholarship committee and take over the publicity duties...lots of opportunities to help the group!!

Susan
