I became interested in art when I was a pre-teen. Although I started with a "paint by numbers" oil color set, I soon found that I didn't want to stay within the lines nor use the assigned colors.

Majoring in art in high school gave me the opportunity to explore various mediums and to study art history. I included art courses while pursuing my Business degree at Indiana University.

In 1998, I started to develop a new painting style. I was greatly influenced by the Fauve Landscape Art of 1904-1908. I find that the works of Andre Derain and Henri Matisse have influenced my style the most.

I have entered my art in various competitions and have received awards for my work. I have sold my art to private collectors in California, Arizona, New York, Hawaii, and Canada.

A message from the President...

WOW!! I'm still walking on air after the wonderful weekend painting workshop with Ning Hou. The perfect weather allowed us to work in the garden AND Ning graciously donated his demonstration paintings to be auctioned at our Spring Show! Thank you Ning!!

Speaking of the Spring Show, hopefully you are all painting like mad on your entries...

On another subject, we really need someone (or 2 or 3 of you) with the technical skills to bring our club into the 21st century. It would be great to be able to film the demos and project them onto the big screen and/or provide a digital projector for our visiting artists. PLEASE let me know if you can help.

The next committee chair meeting will be March 11 at my house.

Susan

Plan Ahead:

March: 3/5/14 Eric Greenhut

The March Committee Meeting

March 11, 2014

4:30pm

@

Susan Pizzi's House

Our Wine and Cheese Critique is coming up soon...and we would like to get out a Get Ready Reminder in the March Palette. I will have a sign-up sheet available at the March General Meeting and this palette reminder will help to give members food for thought, so to speak, as to what they might like to bring! There was discussion that Olga would be the judge...but I was not clear on that...I guess that would be announced at March meeting.

BAS General Meeting - 4/2/14

Bring your favorite wine and cheese, or make a favorite appetizer to share with fellow artists! It will be a fun filled meeting with painting critique and judging, so don't forget to bring your painting too!!!

Thanks

Carmel
